Description: From the author of Apocalyptic Planet comes a vivid travelogue through prehistory, that traces the arrival of the first people in North America at least twenty thousand years ago and the artifacts that tell of their lives and fates. In Atlas of a Lost World, Craig Childs upends our notions of where these people came from and who they were. How they got...

Review: Craig Childs does for archaeology what John McPhee does for geology. His earlier book, House of Rain explained the archaeology of the Southwest better than any other source I have found. Now Atlas of a Lost World does it for the earliest inhabitants of the western hemisphere. He relates a complex story in an entertaining and readable way. I regret...
